

I Wandered by the Brook-Side.

I wandered by the brook side, I wandered by the mill; I could not hear the brook flow, The rattle of the mill;

I sat beneath the elm-tree; I watched the long, long shade, And as it grew still longer, I did not feel afraid;

He came not, he came not— The night came on alone; The little stars sat, one by one, Each on its golden throne;

Jersey Red Swine. A number of inquiries have come to hand lately about the above breed of hogs, and we have given such information as we were in possession of.

of hair which protects them from mangle in Summer and cold in Winter. But the Jersey Reds respond to treatment as do other breeds.

Harm has been done by propagating the notion that sugar is injurious to the teeth, by diverting attention from real causes of destruction and decay.

All forms of dyspepsia have a direct tendency to destroy the teeth. Whatever causes acidity of the stomach is ruinous to the teeth.

One great need of this country is skilled labor. This sort of labor is snapped up everywhere and is in good demand.

WAKEFULNESS.—Take a walk every evening, just before retiring, and endeavor to keep your mind from recurring to the occupations of the day.

Illegitimate Births in Europe. In Prussia, out of 1,000 births, 120 are illegitimate; in Southern Germany, 200 out of 1,000 are illegitimate.

Mr. Grundy, of Kentucky, who is really a breeder of long experience prefers them to Poland Chinas or Berkshire, which he has raised for many years, in large quantities and of the finest strains.

Yesterday a great curiosity was placed on our table—a deer's heart containing the flint barb of an arrow.

A RUSHING CLOUD.

The village of Pensaukee, at the mouth of the Pensaukee river, on the west shore of Green Bay, was devastated and partially destroyed by a tornado on Saturday evening the 7th inst.

The village of Pensaukee, at the mouth of the Pensaukee river, on the west shore of Green Bay, was devastated and partially destroyed by a tornado on Saturday evening the 7th inst.

The damage was frightful, and the effects of the wind marvelous. It struck the river and drained the stream, taking the water up, in one spot, to a height of fifty feet; overturned barges, blew the upper works of the decks of steamers, demolished entirely about fifteen buildings, and damaged as many more.

One can have the hands in soapsuds, with soft soap, without injury to the skin, if the hands are dipped in vinegar or lemon juice immediately after.

The European steamers are carrying large quantities of freight over the water, the character and variety of the exports comprising cheese, bacon, wheat, cotton, beef, pork, butter, corn, fresh meat, tallow, lard, tobacco, canned goods, agricultural implements, and sundry kinds of machinery.

A writer in the Country Gentleman states that the presence of black walnut trees in an orchard is sure to kill apple trees. The effect of a small walnut tree on a large apple tree is small at first, but it will show itself after a little, and death will be the result.

In size the Holstein cows compare favorably with other large breeds, mature cows weighing from 1,500 to 1,700 pounds, and bulls from 2,000 to 2,500 pounds.

Buttermilk Pop.—Take some nice new light bread and put it in a kettle and cut it up in mouthfuls of some fresh butter, and fry till a light brown; then put in a gallon of fresh buttermilk and a cup of white sugar, and stir till it boils, and then take it off and put it in a pan.

FISH BALLS.—Take fish that has been freshened and boned, enough to make one quart; cold boiled potatoes, double the quantity of fish; three alls of salt pork (fried out); chop all very fine together; then add three well-beaten eggs, one cup of sweet milk, and make into balls. Fry brown in the fat that was fried out.—They are most delicious.

A SURE CURE FOR CHOLERA.—After seventeen years experience of cholera in my family, and after trying everything imaginable, I have at last found a sure cure for cholera as far as my experience goes.

It is now proposed to make arrangements to issue a $2 gold coin, and the whole thing looks like an underhanded attempt to put gold entirely beyond the reach of newspaper men.—Bridgeport Standard.

The United States Mint has stopped work for the present, but the other mint continues to perform its cooling labor of love, under the gentle, deft hands of bartenders.

The London Cottage Gardener says: We have learned to just at gapes by making free use of camphor.

THE HOUSE AND FARM.

A soft cloth wet in alcohol, will clean and polish mirrors beautifully.

Ohio raises 15,000,000 bushels of apples from 381,000 acres of orchards.

A number of Kentucky race horses have lately been shipped to England.

Robert Gregg, of Lenawee county, Mich., has a field of seven acres cleared in 1823, which has grown a crop of corn every year since, and is now in corn.

It is claimed that $30,000 worth of hogs have died during the past year of cholera in a circle of five miles around Homer, Ill.
